

STATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON JUVENILE JUSTICE AND DELINQUENCY PREVENTION

March 16, 2016 Meeting

Issue: Presentation by Dan Macallair on his new book, After the Doors Were Locked: A History of Youth Corrections in California and the Origins of 21st Century Reform

Daniel Macallair is the Center of Juvenile & Criminal Justice's Executive Director and co-founder. Mr. Macallair's expertise is in the development and analysis of youth and adult correctional policy. He has implemented model community corrections programs and incarceration alternatives throughout the country and is an expert on criminal justice reform.

Mr. Macallair serves on the faculty of the Department of Criminal Justice Studies at San Francisco State University as a Practitioner-in-Residence. He teaches courses on adult and juvenile corrections policy, is an author of numerous publications, and an invited speaker at conferences and seminars throughout the country.

For this agenda item, Mr. Macallair will lead a discussion on his recently published book entitled "After the Doors Were Locked: A History of Youth Corrections in California and the Origins of 21st Century Reform."

Recommendation / Action Needed: Information only

Resource Person: Sandra McBrayer, Chair